

Three afternoons a week twenty-five students gather in the school library to practice under the direction of Mr. Gerald Polk. This is the Warhawk Band in the making, and the school anticipates the day when they will appear at all school functions.

