

Santa Claus makes a visit every year to John C's kindergarten. With such excitement little ones can hardly eat their Christmas goodies . . .

Even the sophisticated upper classmen feel that special glow. They decorate their trees, exchange clever gifts, and plan big plans for their holidays.

