

I ENJOY BEING A GIRL . . .

In December, Miss John C. Calhoun was elected when the Junior Class (again!) sponsored a beauty contest with out-of-town judges facing up to the awesome job of selecting a winner. Four girls were chosen by their classmates to represent each of the classes. From these twenty beauties, Mary Tennant of the 8th grade was crowned. Others participating were Jennie Beach, Carol Black, Amy Guess, Debbie Smoak, Helen Beach, Karen Ordell, Maline Padgett, Lu Ann Phillips, Tammy Berry, Gayle Crosby, Kinloch Howell, Robin Strickland, Britt Covington, Denise Culpepper, Wendy Hiott, Robin Robinson, Anne Bowers, Shelly Foster and Ann Jervey. Donna Kaye Cope was chairman for this class project.
