

Any successful school athletic program depends to a large degree upon the support of the student body. The Cheerleaders at John C. - both varsity and junior-varsity - contribute diligently and energetically to leading the student body in its enthusiastic support of its teams.

