

THAT IS!)

The Feminist movement is taking over! The girls played football and the boys did the cheering. The Junior class challenged their elder sisters to a game of flag football. Alas - youth prevailed. The beautiful bevy of cheerleaders gave their all - and what a lot that was! Score: 16-0. The Senior footballers had their own sponsors, and a lovely bunch of "girls" they were. Mr. Covington was "referee", or that's what he said he was, anyway . . .
