

The annual Christmas Bazaar is the longest-running project of the Academy P. T. O., and has always been a source of much revenue for the extras that the Academy enjoys. It has now established itself as an outstanding feature of the low country Christmas season, and is eagerly anticipated and patronized by the public.

