The Salon

Presented by the students of John
C. Calhoun Academy, to commemorate America's Bicentennial 1776 - 1976.

By Ann Phillips, Editor
Karen Ordel, Business Manager

We in lowcountry South Carolina live amid a heritage of matchless beauty and exciting historical significance.

Everywhere we look, everywhere we walk, the past is there to remind us of the priceless legacy that we are heirs to:

the silent deep flow of our dark rivers, bordering cypress swamps unchanged
since they provided a haven for Revolutionary heroes

the kindness of nature
in climate and terrain

the abundance of wildlife, foliage, and flower that beckons us outdoors

the dignity of venerable houses
among enormous live oak trees and stately magnolias, eternal reminders of the ambition and success of our forefathers

the checkerboard pattern of once-profitable rice fields, hewn from tidewater soil by hand tools and human sweat

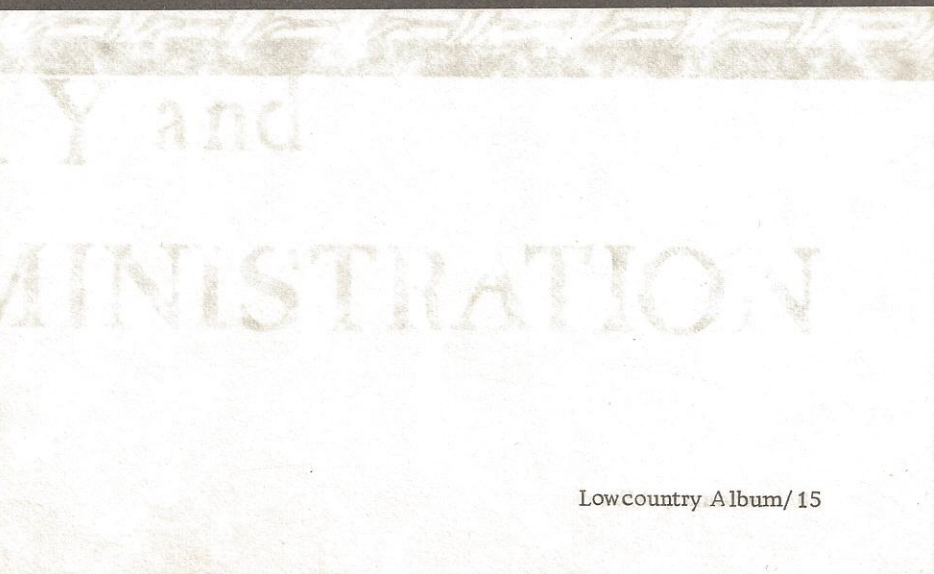

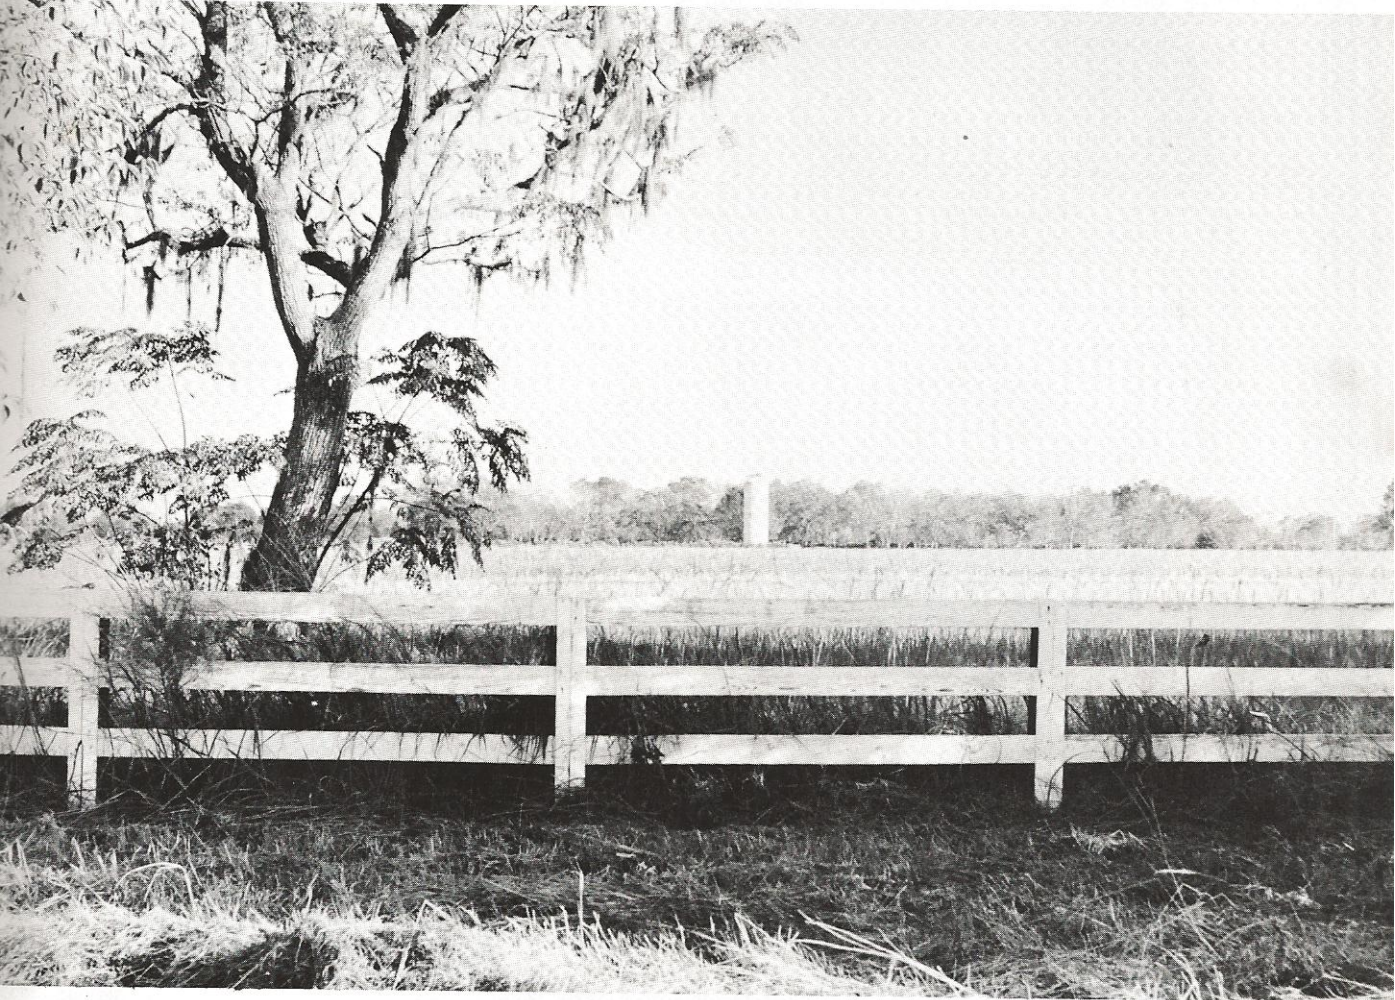

the mystery and beauty of old ruins - old graves, old churches, old houses - haunting us with what once was - what will never be again the knowledge that what we are is the summation of all the years that have preceded us - all the labors, the risks, the failures, the accomplishments of thousands who have walked these very paths before us.

Each generation has added its signature to this record of time. Some generations have dealt harshly with its beauty; some have added immeasurably to the face of the land. On this 200th birthday of our country, we add our thanks for her glorious past, and our prayers for an equally glorious future.

DONALD REGISTER, '76
Oct. 27, 1958 -- Dec. 6, 1975

It is not growing like a tree
In bulk, doth make man better be;
Or standing long an oak, three hundred year,
To fall a log at last, dry, bald, and sere:
A lily of a day
Is fairer far in May;
Although it fall and die that night,
It was the plant and flower of light.
In small porportions we just beauties see,
And in short measures life may perfect be.

To the memory of our friends, we lovingly dedicate the 1976 edition of THE TALON.

CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, SERVICE -- These are the four guiding principles of the National Honor Society. This is the elite group of students who set a standard for others to emulate. Early last fall one senior and seventeen juniors were inducted into the Society in an impressive ceremony during Assembly.

TALON STAFF

Putting out an annual is a year-around job, and is a lot of hard, tedious work. But it is a lot of fun also. Cropping pictures, laying out pages, writing copy, meeting deadlines -- all this becomes a way of life for the harassed staff. This year we added our own darkroom and this has contributed greatly to the efficiency of production. Each yearbook staff tries to create an annual that is a true reflection of the school year. The 1976 TALON hopes this edition does just that.

"O.K., What's next?"

"It's really pretty, isn't it?"

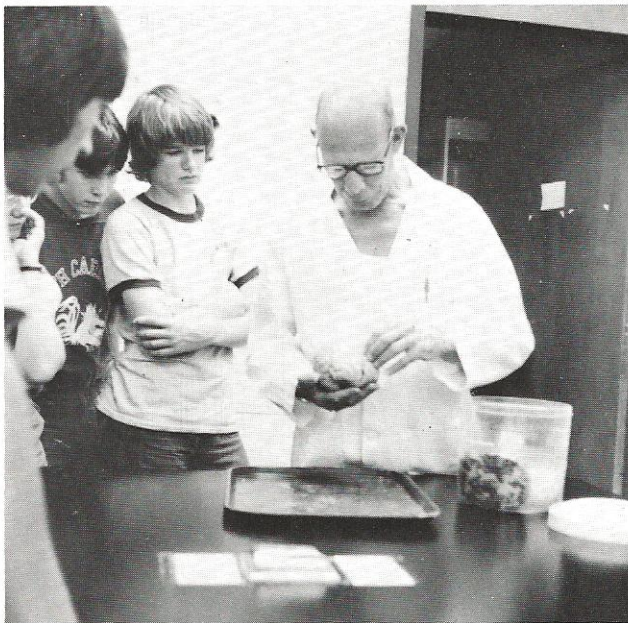

JUNIOR-SENIOR

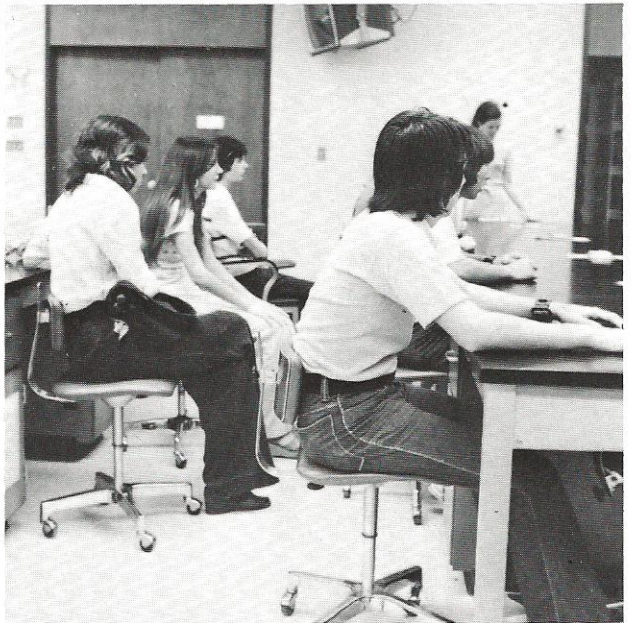

Stairway to Heaven

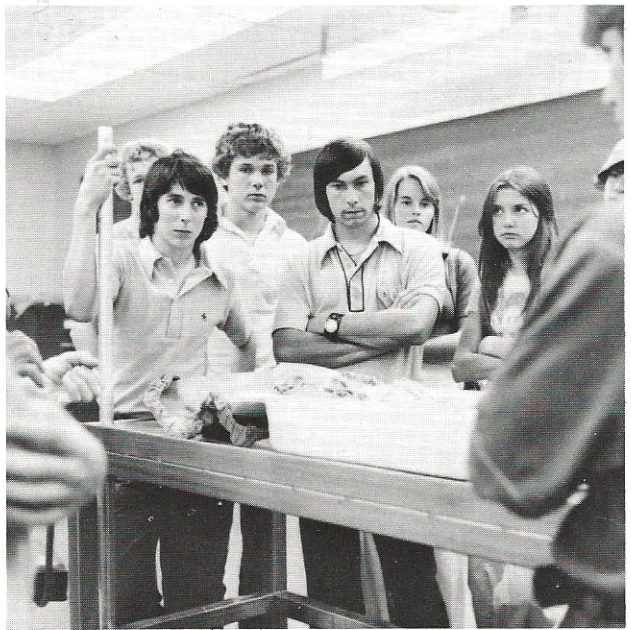

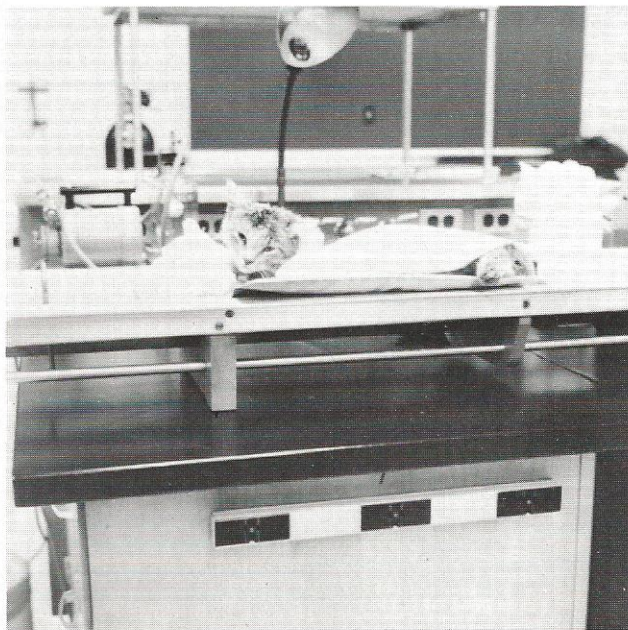

SPRING 1975: The Junior Class put together a very successful Jr. -Sr. They decorated the gym in a "heavenly" fashion. The food was "out of this world". Music was provided by ELI. The highlight of the evening was a "twist contest". Mr. and Mrs. George Fennell twisted their way to the title. After the dance everyone headed to Edisto Beach for a rainy week-end! Many thanks to Mrs. Sandra Fennell and Mr. Jack Sanford, the Junior Class sponsors.

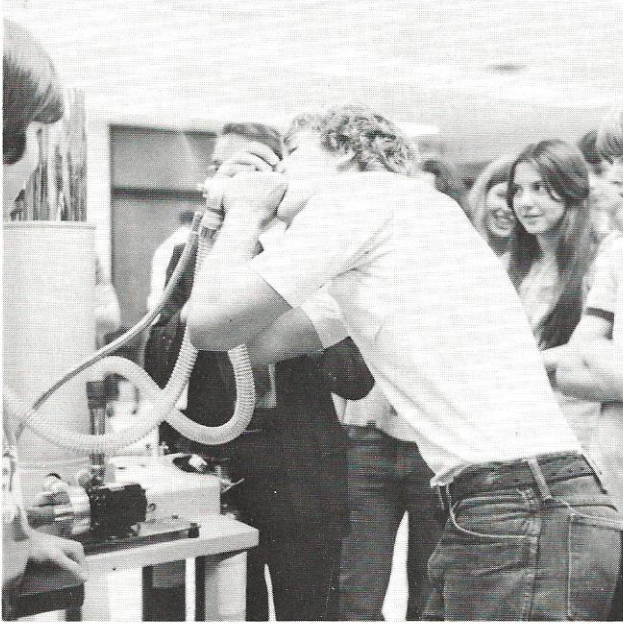

Dr. Metcalf demonstrates the proper way to peel a human brain.

Below, Dr. Metcalf points out various muscles in a dissected arm.

Spring, 1975: Mrs. Fowler and the biology classes, accompanied by "Photographer" Huffines, toured the Medical University in Charleston. On arrival, the group divided--half going with Mrs. Fowler, the others with Mr. Huffines. The two groups toured the dental department, where false teeth were being made; witnessed the implantation of electrodes in a cat's brain; were shown a film; were given a demonstration of the electron microscope; and were lectured by Dr. Metcalf, who also took them through the gross (boy! it sure was!) anatomy department and the morgue.

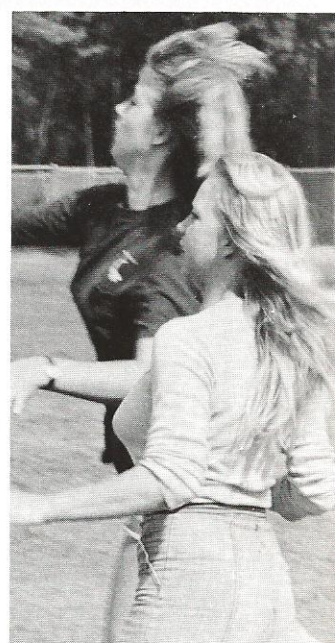

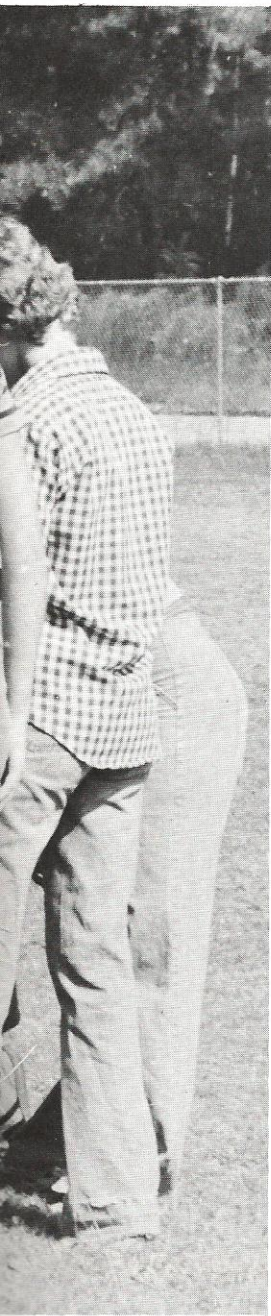

After examining a dissected cadaver, everyone was ready to eat and the bus headed for lunch at Burger King!

YEA, JUNIORS! RAH, SENIORS! (GIRLS,

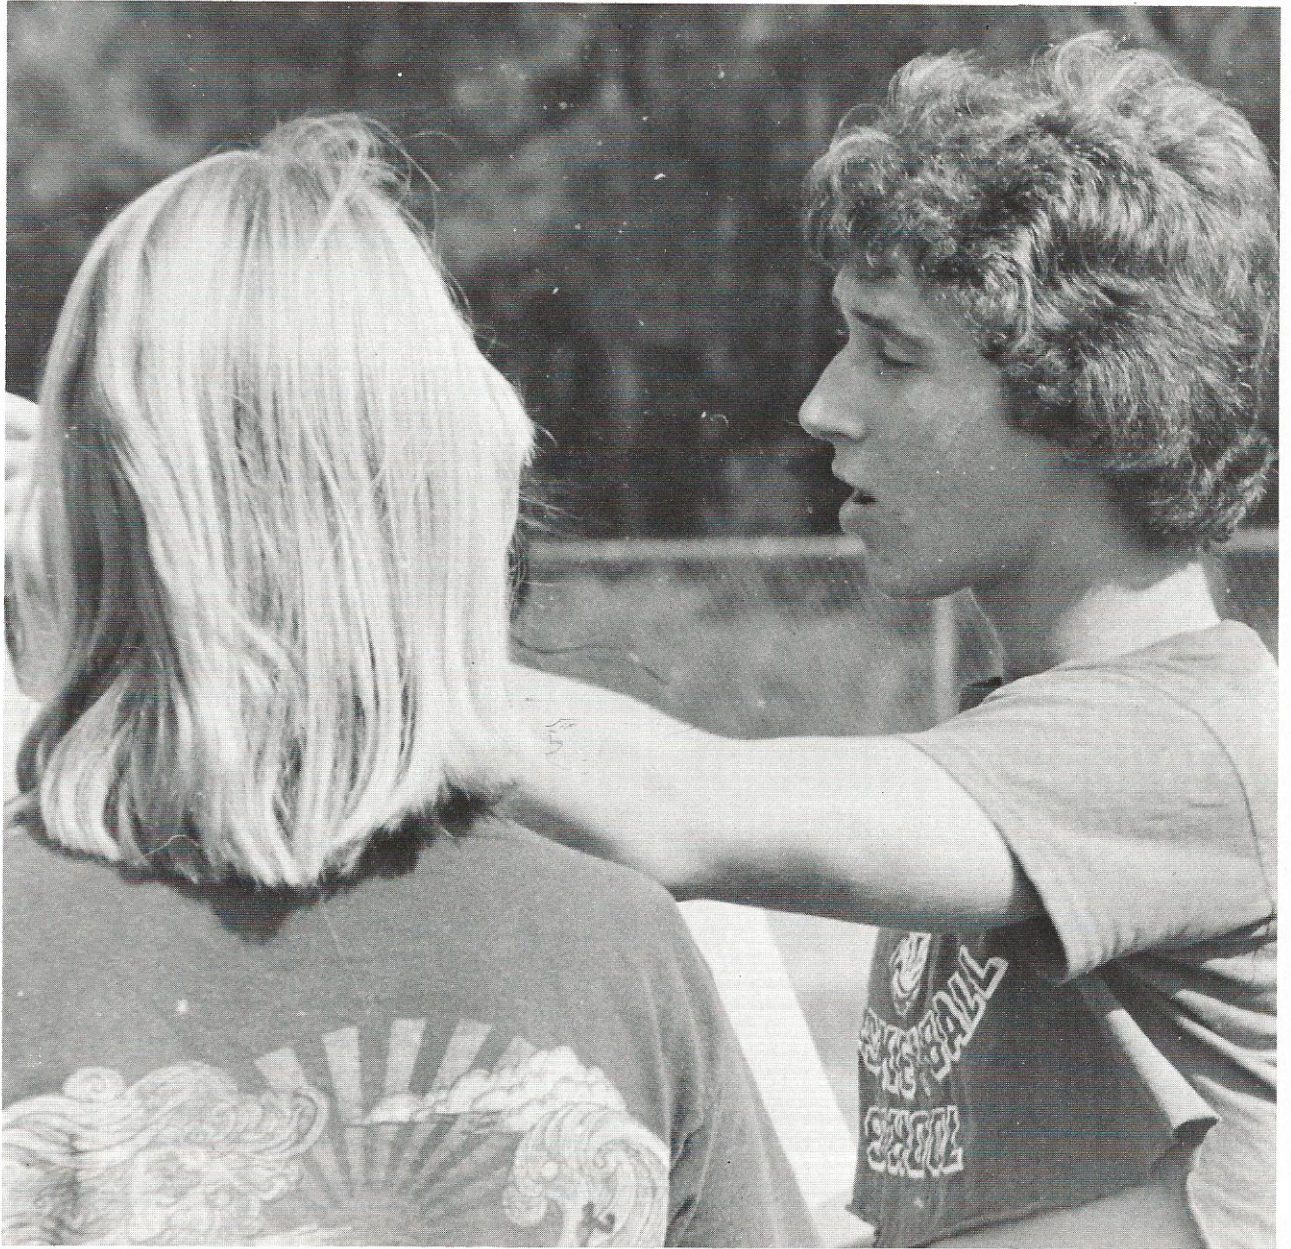

THAT IS!)

The Feminist movement is taking over! The girls played football and the boys did the cheering. The Junior class challenged their elder sisters to a game of flag football. Alas - youth prevailed. The beautiful bevy of cheerleaders gave their all - and what a lot that was! Score: 16-0. The Senior footballers had their own sponsors, and a lovely bunch of "girls" they were. Mr. Covington was "referee", or that's what he said he was, anyway . . .

JCCA'S FIRST ANNUAL POWDER PUFF GAME

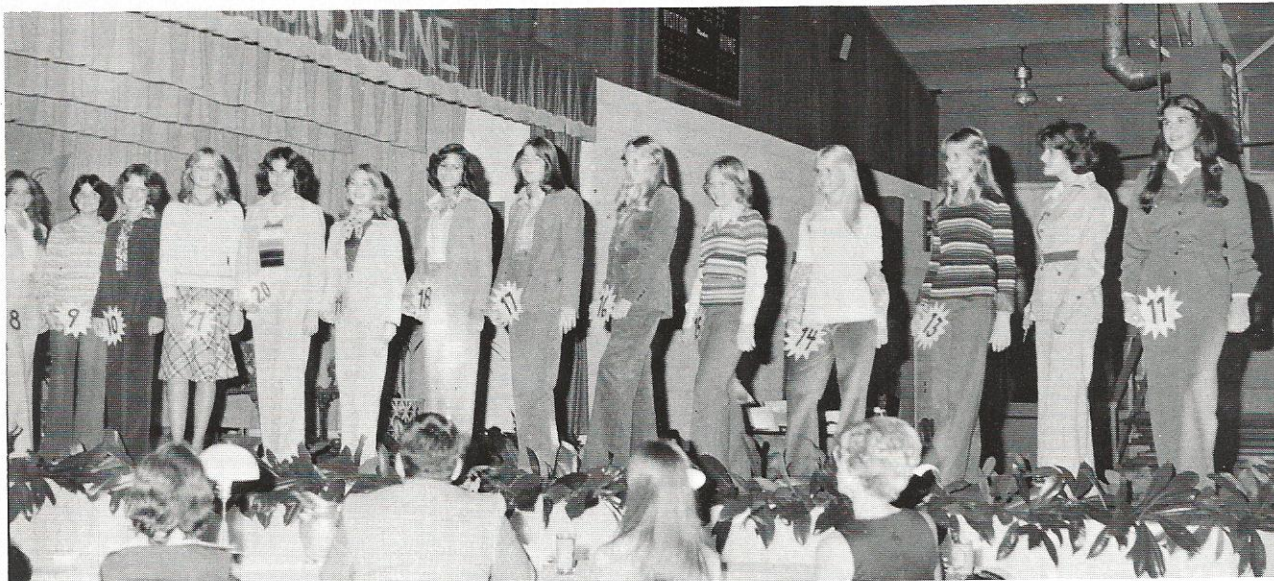

CAROLINA SUNSHINE

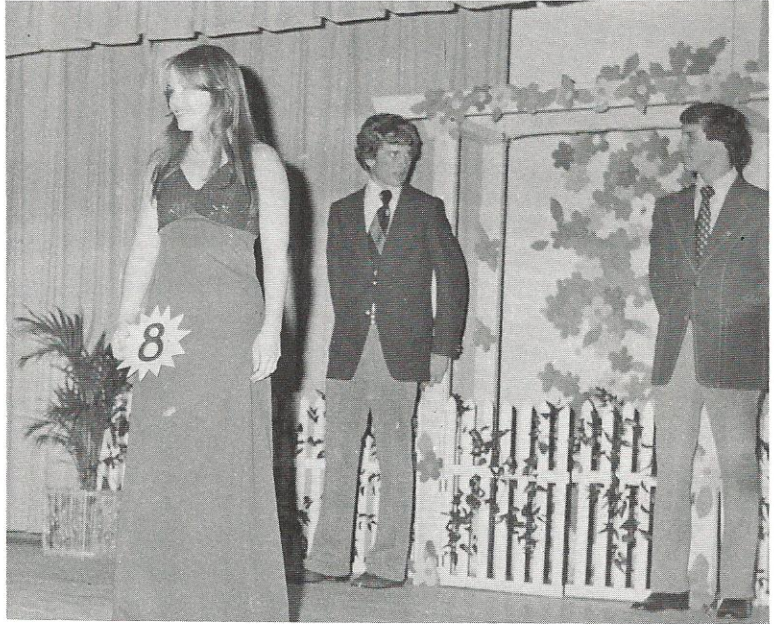

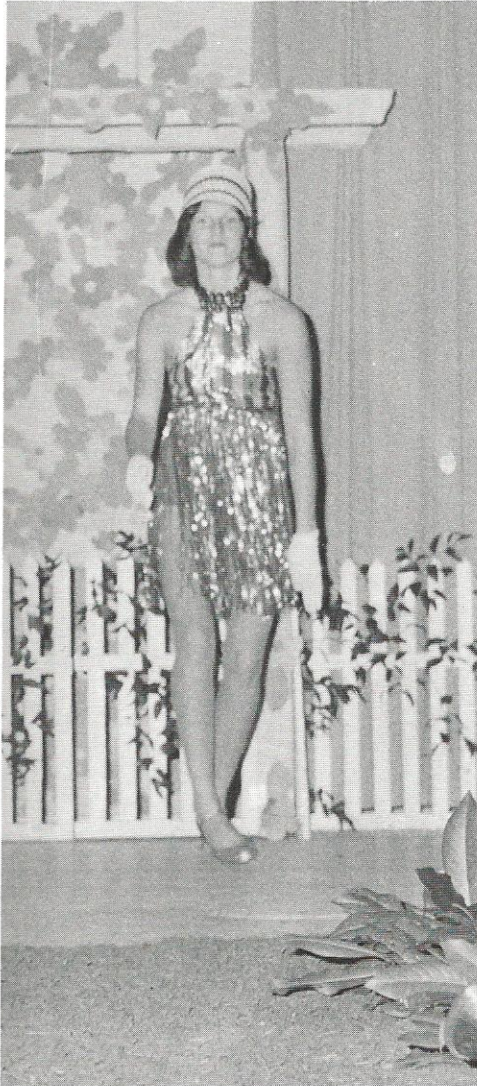

On a Saturday night in November the Junior Class sponsored its second annual Miss John C. Calhoun Beauty Pageant. ANN CROSBY was crowned 1975-76 Queen, with Wendy Hiott and Robin Strickland chosen first and second runners-up. Judges were Mrs. Myra Eskew, Mrs. Pat Ray and Captain Rusty Hannah

MISS JOHN C. CALHOUN ACADEMY

Finalists were chosen from 21 contestants. Others participating were Gaby Covington, Bonnie Phillips, Cheryl Carroll, Dell Newton, Anne Bowers, Shelly Foster, Teresa Newton, Ann Jervey, Robin Robinson, Denise Culpepper, Karen Strickland, Kinloch Howell, Frances Carmichael, Tammy Berry, Mary Wynn Todd, Beth Hiott, Helen Beach, and Lu Ann Phillips.

Mr. Marion Sams, master of ceremonies for the pageant, introduced the contestants as they appeared on stage and also interviewed the eight semi-finalists.

Intermittently entertainment, including singing, dancing, and organ selections of popular songs, was presented.

Sue Yin Carroll and Neyle Jervey were co-chairmen for this Junior Class project.

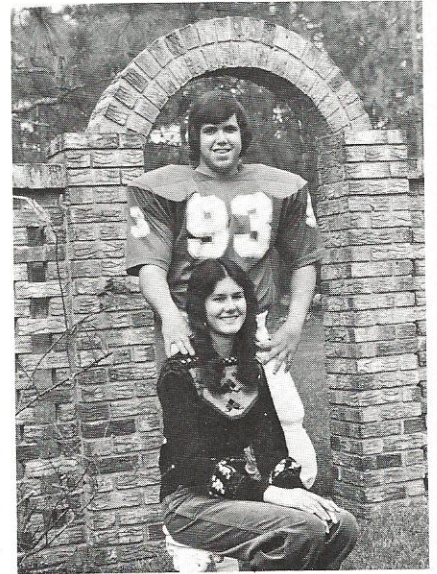

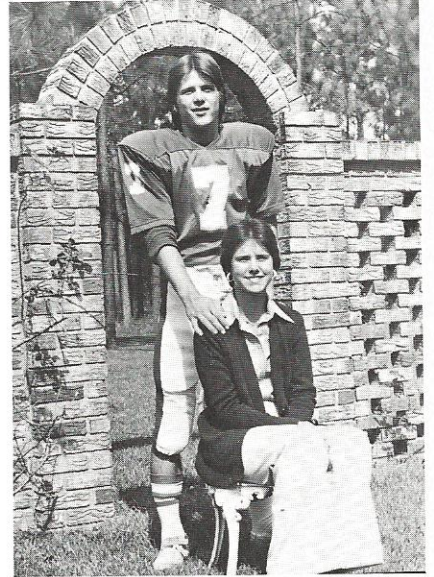

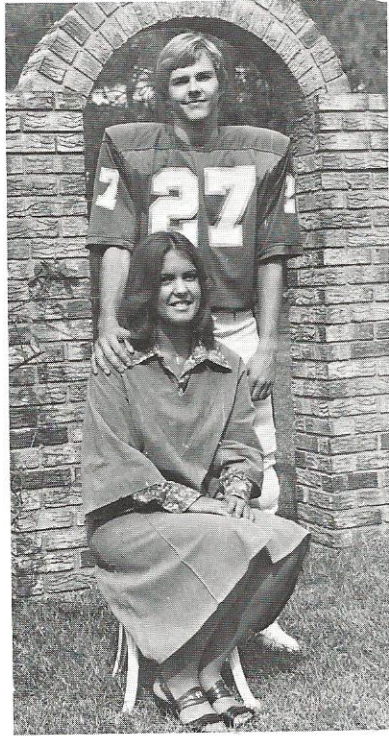

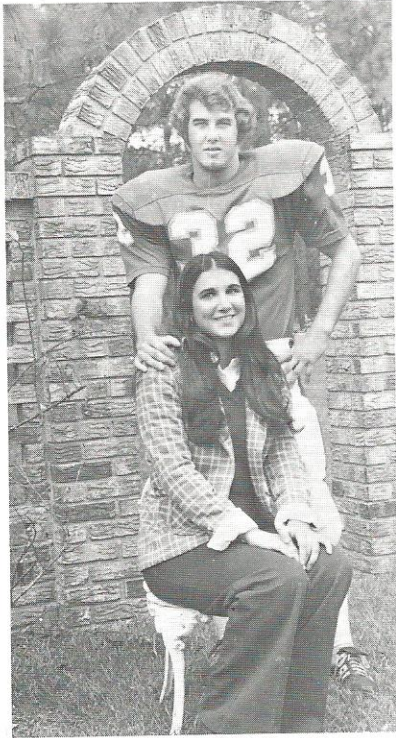

HOME COMING!

HOME COMING! This is the climax of the Academy fall season. What an exciting time it is beginning with the big pep rally with its skits and faculty participation. This year the band was there to add an exhilarating cadence to the songs and yells.

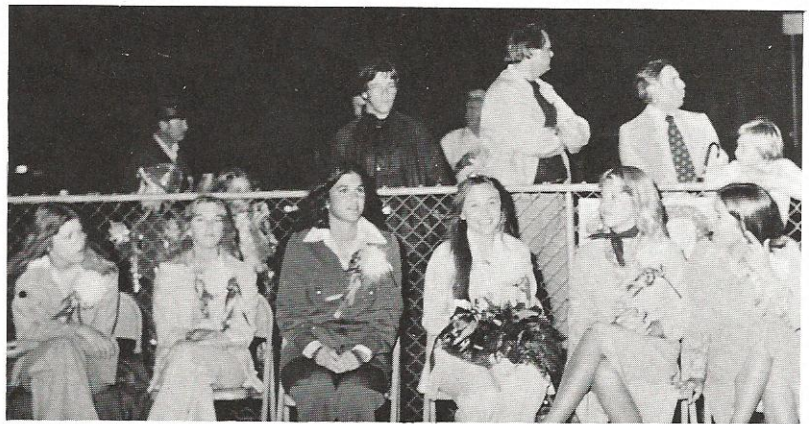

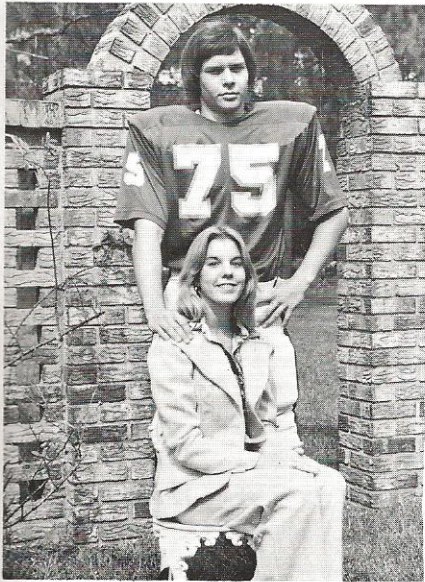

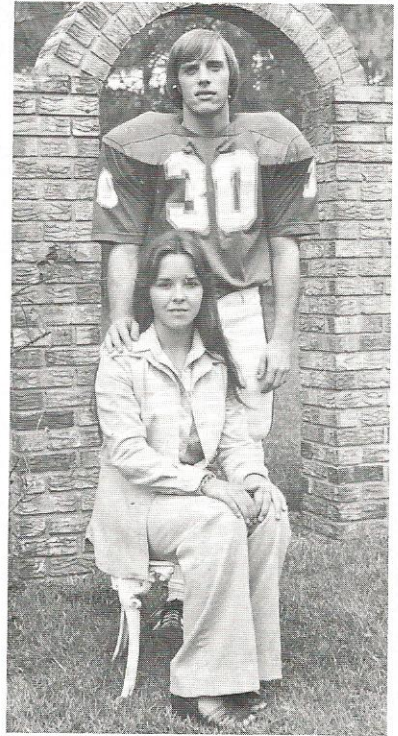

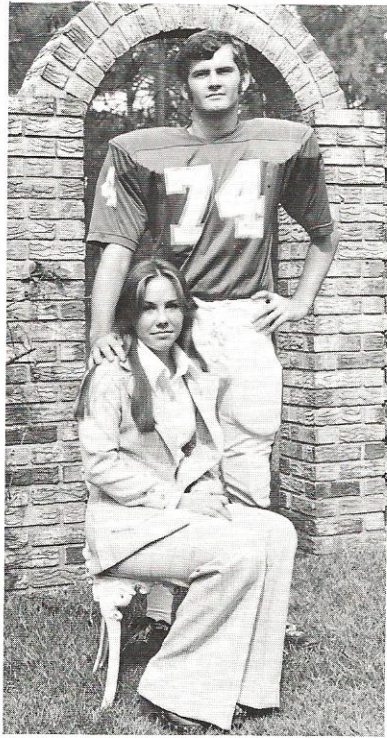

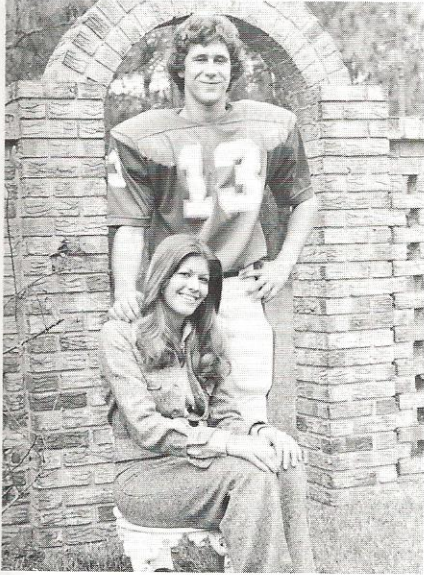

Skies outside were gray and damp, but surely it would change before gametime! Meanwhile, everyone wondered who would be crowned Homecoming Queen. HELEN BEACH, MALINE PADGETT, and LU ANN PHILLIPS were the 1975 candidates.

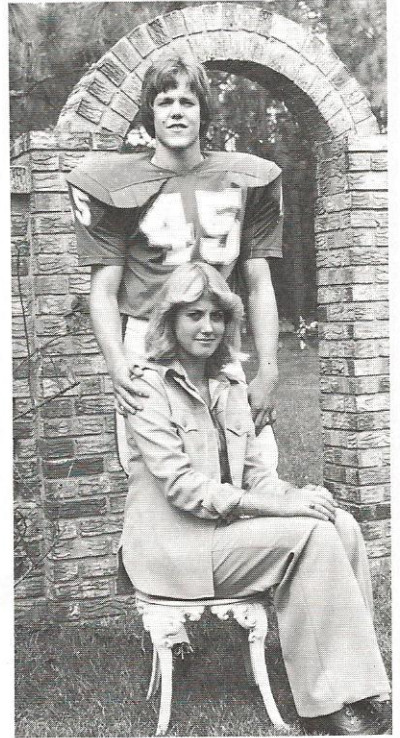

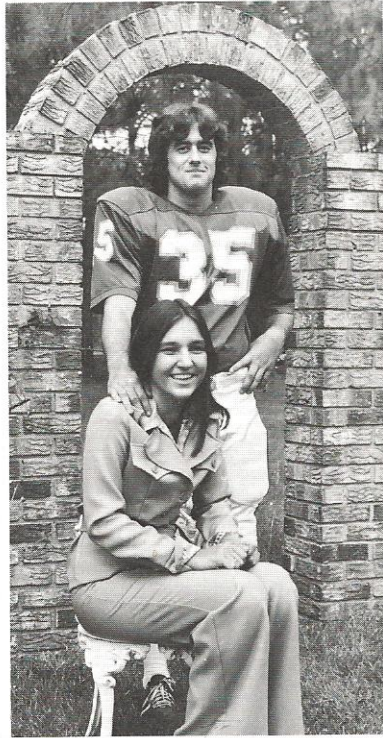

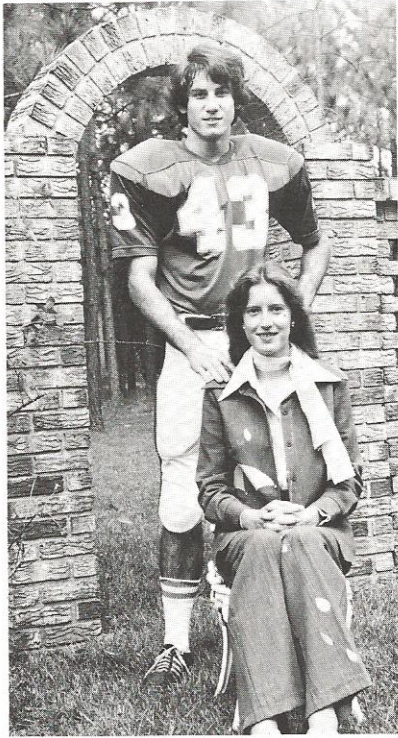

The eleven senior football players presented their sponsors to the capacity crowd before the game with Sheldon began. While not exactly raining, there was a suspicious heavy dampness to the air. At the beginning of half-time, the three queen candidates and the 1974 Queen, Jenny Beach, were escorted on the field by Mr. Lohr, Headmaster; Dr. Joe Flowers, Chairman of the Board; Mr. John Lemacks, Booster Club President; and Mr. Clyde Warren, President of the P. T. O. Jenny crowned her successor, LU ANN PHILLIPS. And then, the RAIN CAME!

p. 50 pictured clockwise - Howell Beach with sponsor Helen Beach, Randy Carmichael with Beth Hiott, Tony Connelly with Wendy Hiott, and Clifton Culpepper with Karen Strickland.

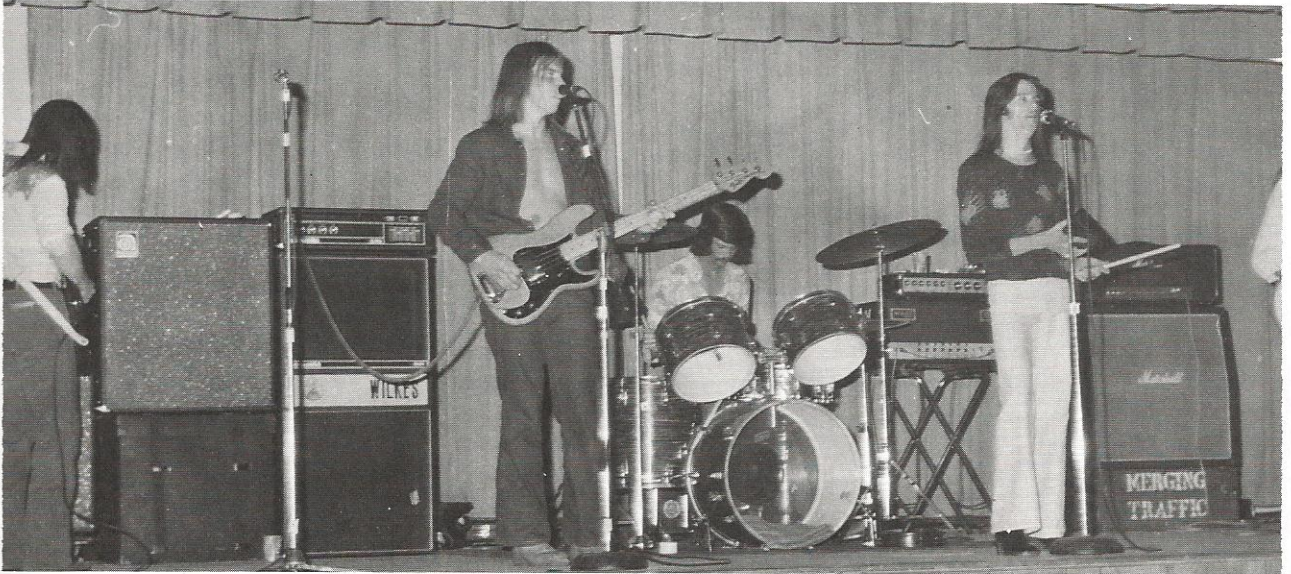

p. 51 - Brad Perry with Kinloch Howell, Phil Hurlbutt and Mary Barnes, Joey Carson and Lu Ann Phillips, and Greg Eley and Patti Heverly.

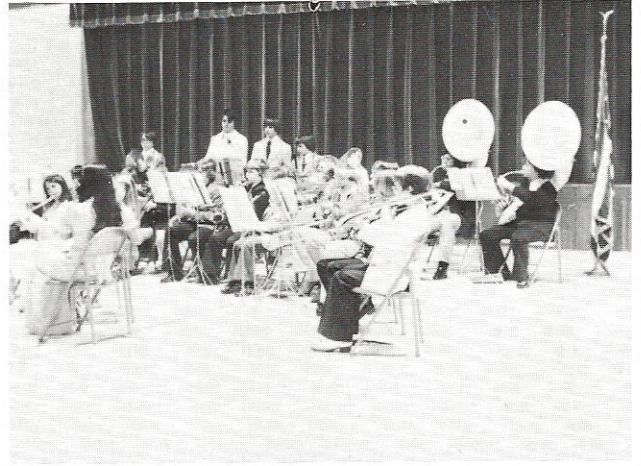

The football game ended the way all Homecoming games should -- JCCA won 20-0. After everyone had a chance to wring out their clothes, they ended the evening dancing in the gym to the music of MERGING TRAFFIC.

This year our band, under the direction of Mr. Gerald Polk, is in its second year. The progress this group has made in its short life is unbelievable. Their appearance at school activities has contributed enormously to the spirit and fun of each occasion. While the "big" band is marching and performing, the "baby" band is waiting in the wings, ready to add their number to the more experienced group when they become proficient enough. Mr. Polk is proud of his group at J. C. C. A. , and the Academy is equally proud of the band and its director!

WARHAWK BAND

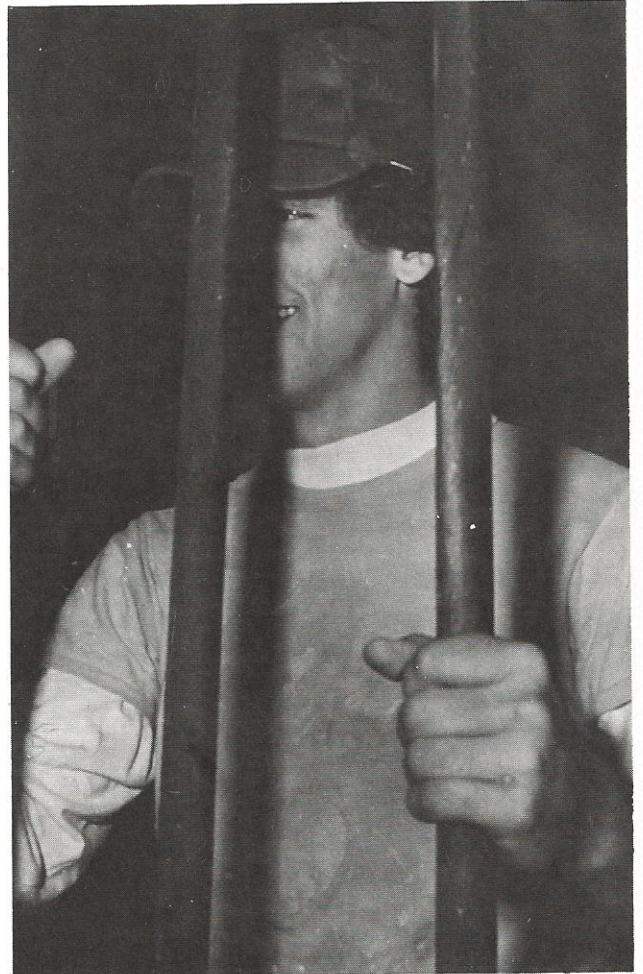

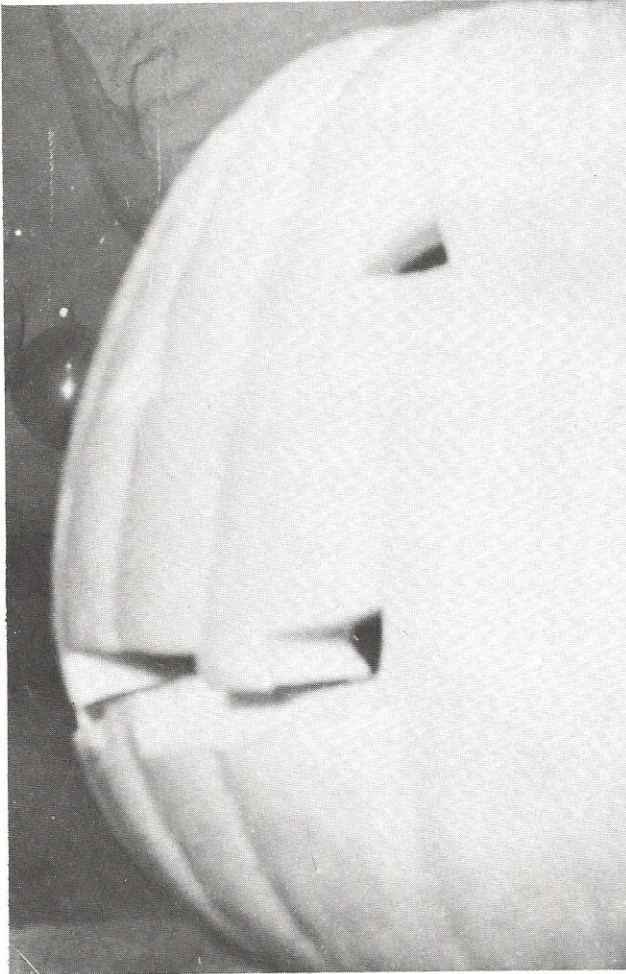

The band went to Camden in the fall to be judged at the Southern States Band Festival. Despite a rocky start (the bus didn't show!) they performed well and returned with a beautiful trophy and a rating of "Excellent"!

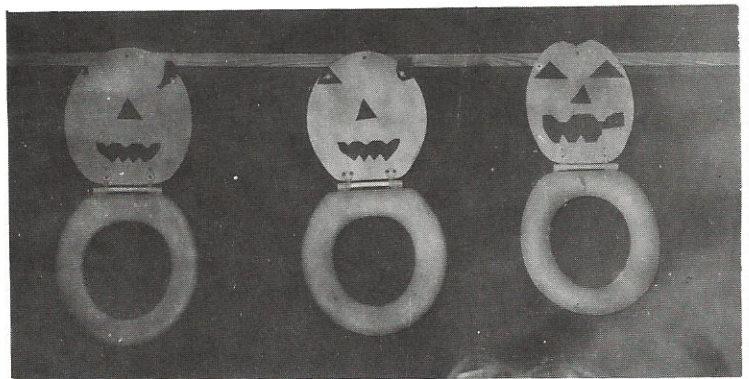

HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL

The PTO sponsored another successful Halloween Carnival this year. They had a variety of games, such as, ring-over-bottle, go-fishing, free-throw, football-through-toilet seat! Everyone enjoyed the traditional bobbing-for-apples. The jailhouse was the center of attention. The horrorhouse was filled with frightful faces and bellowing screams. BINGO topped the night with terrific prizes.

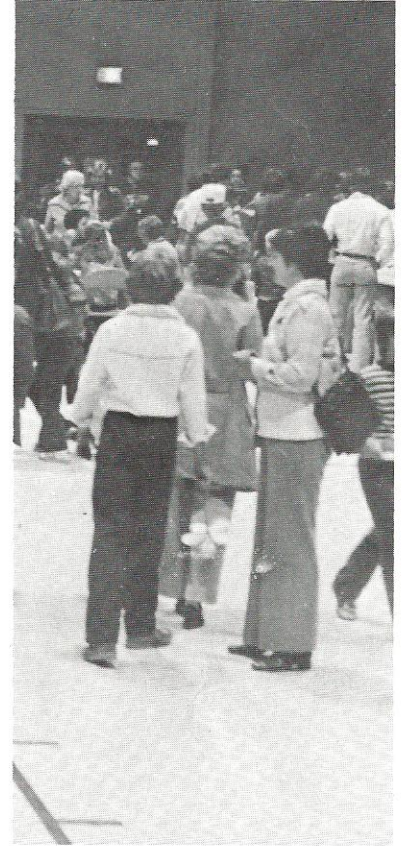

A motorized bike was raffled during the excitement of the carnival. Plenty of popcorn, candy-apples, hot dogs, and candy were gobbled down by the youngsters and grownups alike. Witches, goblins, and Batmans were running around with candy and gum in their hair! Everyone had a great time.

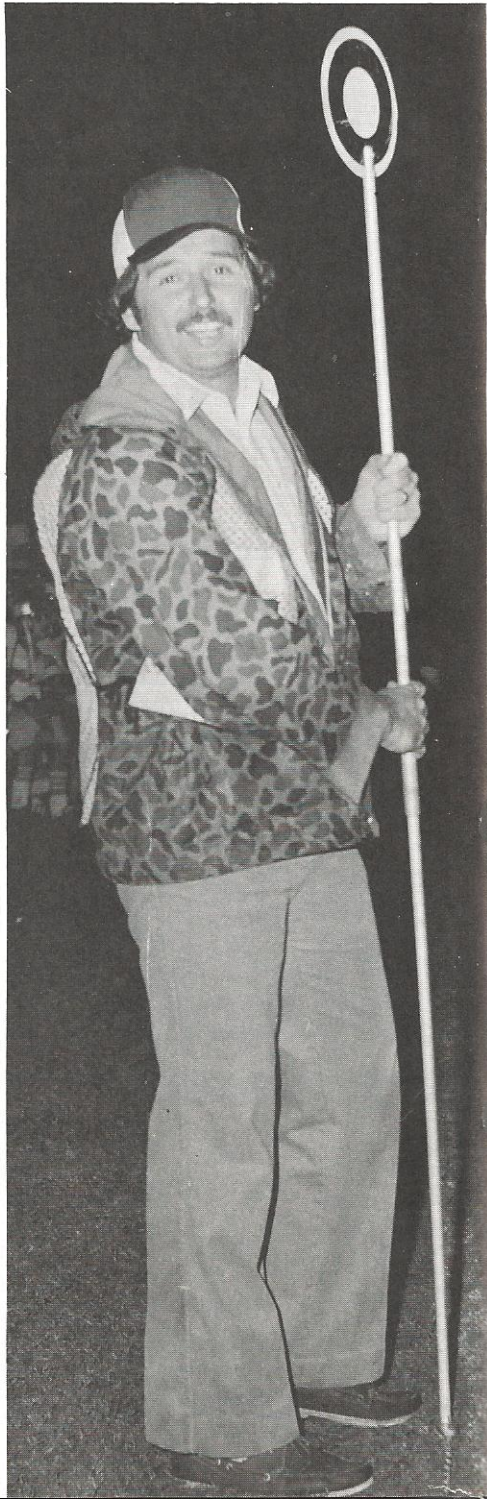

The annual Christmas Bazaar is the longest-running project of the Academy P. T. O., and has always been a source of much revenue for the extras that the Academy enjoys. It has now established itself as an outstanding feature of the low country Christmas season, and is eagerly anticipated and patronized by the public.

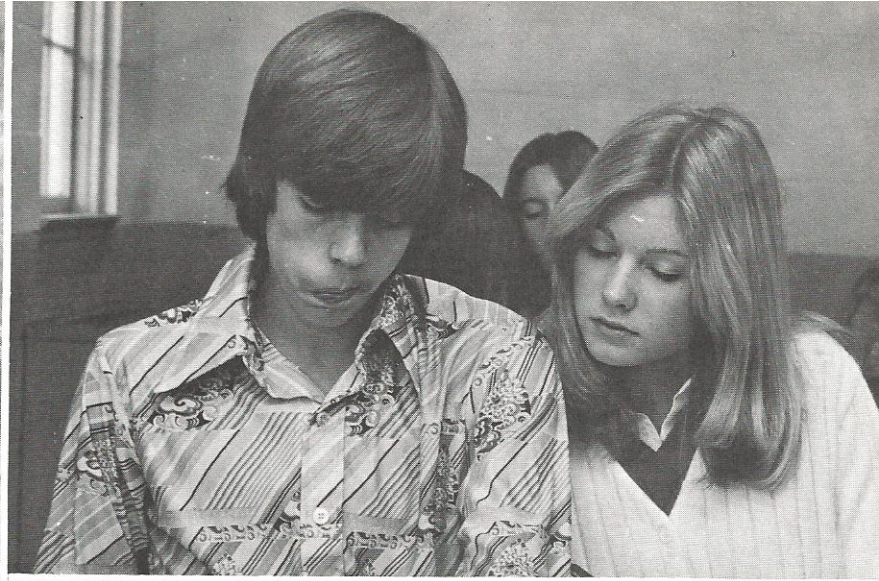

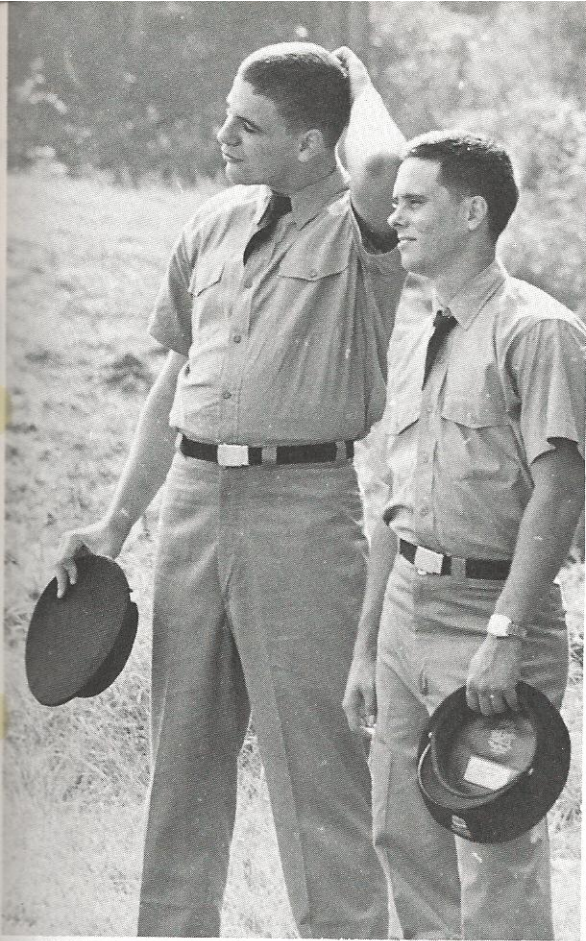

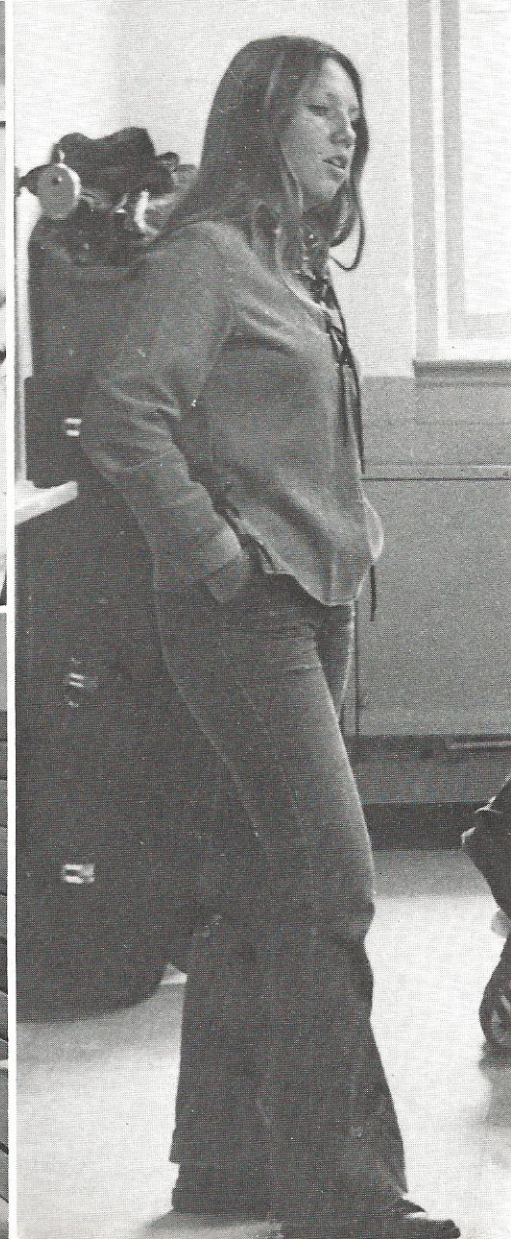

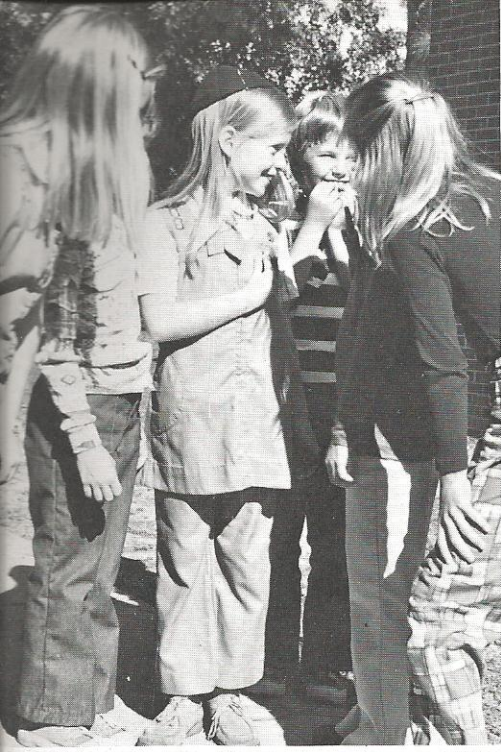

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

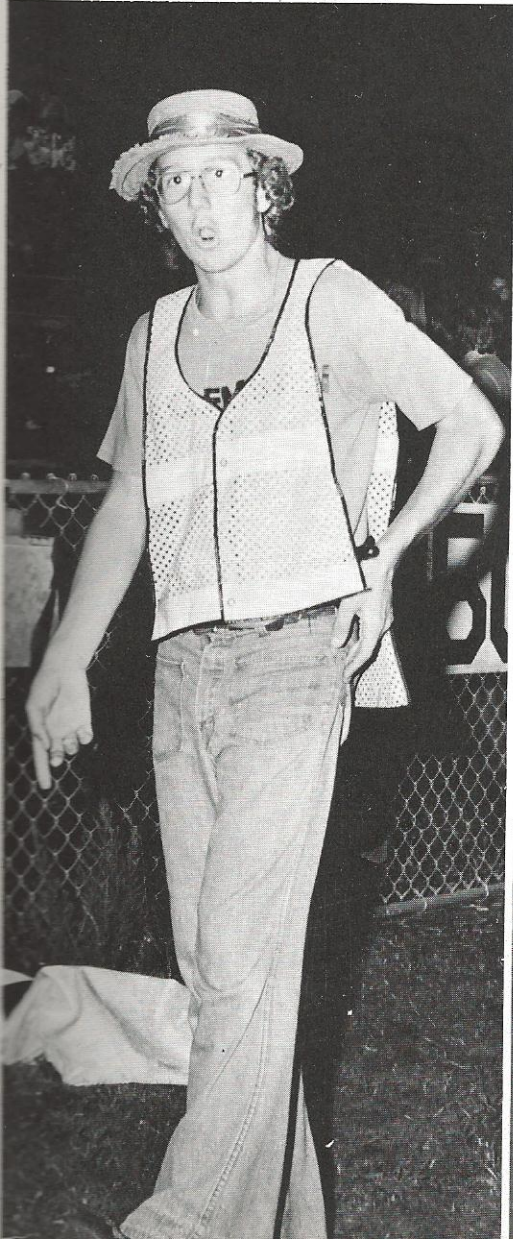

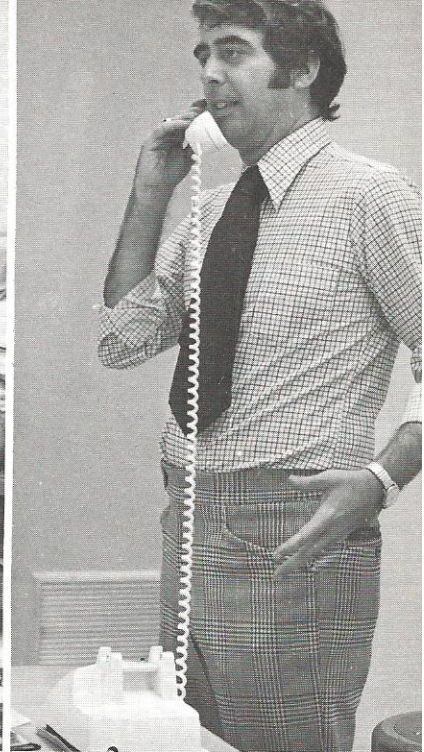

This year the Bazaar added a new attraction -- a FOOD RAFFLE! This was worth $500 and was a big hit. The other booths offered their usual attractive displays of food-stuffs, Christmas decorations, growing plants, hand-sewn articles, toys, wastebaskets, etc., etc. The dedicated hard work of many loyal supporters added another $4000 to the P. T. O. treasury.

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Each year the Senior Class singles out a certain group of their classmates as Superlatives. In addition to these honored few, the Faculty elects a Miss DAR and also a senior boy and girl as Mr. and Miss Warhawk--two students who exemplify the qualities of excellence in school citizenship and personal character.

It is not often that we get an opportunity to express appreciation to those who do much to enrich our lives, directly and indirectly.
The Board of Directors of John C. Calhoun have given much of themselves unstintingly for many years, and because of their continuing efforts
we have an academy in which we take great pride.
So the TALON staff is glad to have this chance to say once again -- Thank You.
