

Business Manager Babb and her sales staff did a most successful job selling ads to downtown merchants in September, and then Cindy organized the sale of yearbooks to students later in the fall.

