

POWDER PUFF, 1977

The third annual Powder-Puff game between the girls of the twelfth and eleventh grades, assisted by their sister classes, took place on a cold night in December.

Ann Wimberley, quarterbacking a strong senior coalition, led her group to a 18-14 victory over the junior group whose quarterback was Melanie Arney.

Steve Wimberley and Chuck Lemacks coached the winners. Perry Hiott and Joey Smoak were junior class coaches.
