

You Teach Benefits Your Students?

DOROTHY HIOTT — Biology & Chemistry; Lancaster, S.C. "For a foundation of college work & a better understanding of the living things around him . . . " RICHARD SMITH — Physical & Earth Science; Walterboro; "Prepares them for chemistry & physicals when they reach higher grades . . . " JOANN WIMBERLEY — Composition; Pueblo, Col.; "To speak clearly, to write clearly, & to think clearly." BETTY LINDER — 10th & 12th English; Walterboro; "I would hope it would be the basis for better communication . . . " GERALD POLK — Music, Music Appreciation, Band; Hampton, S.C. "It helps a student to let out frustrations, & helps greatly in self-discipline." LILLIAN GRIFFITH — Library Science; Olanta, S.C.; "Helps with selection & use of books, use library resources effectively." LEE EVANS — Remedial Reading & Phonics, Tutor; Tullahoma, Tenn. "Gives student pride & confidence in his or her abilities."

