

Sponsored by Mrs. Janis Blocker, the Broadcast Club is composed of juniors and seniors who have an interest in broadcast journalism. Each week the Club produces a 30-minute radio show which is broadcast over WALD.

The Club has won numerous state awards in programming for comedy, sportscasting, and news reporting. In 1979, Skip Utsey was named Broadcaster of the Year. Sandy Rogers held the state office for the current year. Nicole Garris, Stephany Griffin, and Jack Liles represented the Club in the statewide radio and television High School News Quiz contest and were among the state finalists.
