

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is one of the greatest attributes a person can have. It is a union of deepest feelings, an indefinable trust, and constant communication. A friend is that person with whom one spends much of his time and shares his secrets. He is there when you need him and even when you don't! Friends at John C. share late night talks on the phone, trips up and down Jefferies, gossip, and many other things. Friends don't have to try to be friends — it just happens!
