

Johnny Smoak, a member of the band for five years, plays the trombone. He was selected to perform with both the U.S. Navy Band and the band for the Governor's Tree Lighting Ceremony. Johnny claims that what he enjoyed most about the band was "the band trips!"

(Top left), The Marching Warhawks stand at attention before playing the National Anthem.

(Above), Soloist Bruce Hensley is spotlighted by Marching Warhawk Flag Corp.

(Above), Cindy Kinard, Deanne Jones, and Caroline Werntz must concentrate on playing and marching.