

The club consisted of juniors and seniors who paid two-dollar dues. Secretary-treasurer for the year was Benjy Black. John Bennett served as Vice-President. Randy Warren was the club's President for 1983-84.

Individual groups' officers included: Alpha — Co-Production Managers — Joey Ritter and

Todd Buddin; Ass't. — Shan Pye; Program Director — Sallie Neal; Ass't. — Melanie Easterlin. Beta — Production Manager — Brad McMillan; Ass't. — Robbie Free; Program Director — Jeff Searson; Ass't. — Rob Young. Gamma — Production Manager — Todd Hudson; Ass't. — Benjy Black; Program Director — Kathleen

Simmons; Ass't. — John Bryan.

The club appreciated the generosity of WALD for letting them use their equipment and facilities at the station. Sponsor of the club, Mrs. Blocker, always attended recording sessions and assisted the group throughout the year.

(Top left) Mr. Microphone enjoys late night sessions at the station.

(Above) Rodney Cummings, Marsha McGinnis, Lisa Avant, and Lionel Richie enjoy music "All Night Long."

(Top Right) What a professional-looking group of amateur broadcasters.