

"Baseball is a winning tradition at our school." — Ward Ulmer

No Place Like Home

The Varsity Baseball Team of 1985 had a very victorious season this past year. They were under the coaching of Jim Winslett, Tony Orsini, and Brett Maddox. The team won many games which led them to the State Play-offs. It was disappointing to lose in the end, but all the teamwork surely paid off well.

The players really enjoyed being members of the team. Each one had to give up afternoons every day to come out and practice. Some even sacrificed a portion of their senior trip. Most were involved in other sports which helped contribute to the athletic abilities of the members. At the athletic awards banquet, the coaches recognized all of the players. Charles Cook and Shan Pye were noted as being the year's most valuable players. The teamwork, dedication, and determination of the players helped to record to be one of the best ever. Congratulations on a job well done and best of luck for the upcoming years! From the looks of things, it might just be a good one.

Danny Beach, a junior, reaches third base but unfortunately is out by the Swampcat player.

Charles Cook makes the dirt fly as he slides safely into the base.

This year's Co-MVP, Catcher Shan Pye, tries diligently to tag the Wellington player before he reaches home.
