

What a line-up! Part of the Talon Staff poses in front of the fountain at Converse College.

Publication Geniuses?

Hard work, dedication, and desire to be their best describes this year's Talon staff. The six editors and several staff members, along with Mrs. Hawes spent a work-filled week at Converse College this summer. The camp, sponsored by Josten's left very little time to have fun, but the hard work and long hours were well worth the effort. The staff came away with great ideas and several awards.

This year's editors are Editor-in-Chief Melody McGinnis, Sports Editor Sherrie Rizer, Activities Editor Debbie Powers, Classes Editor Kristi Connelly, Faculty Editor Kim Carter and Ads Editor Caroline Werntz. Mary Kate Dean serves as business manager.

Editor-in-Chief Melody McGinnis, spent a quiet moment thinking about cover design.

Debbie Powers draws part of her section design and assignment at camp.
