

Gatsby's Proudly Presents . . .

In the Spring of '85, the Juniors gave the 1986 graduating class a night to remember. The night was spent enjoying time with friends and dancing the time away to the music of Stratus.

The Junior Class spent many long hours trying to agree on a theme and when they had, it took much hard work and time to develop it. With wine glass candles, miniature top hats and canes, and the ushers dressed in black tails and white gloves, who could ask for more? The gym had been transformed into a 1930's night club called Gatsby's in a short two weeks.

The 1985 Jr.-Sr. was certainly one filled with many great memories of friends and fun.

The girls break away from their dates for a dance of their own.

The ushers are ready for a soft shoe dance or anything else that is thrown their way.

Sara Gustin seems to enjoy the challenge of keeping in step with her dance partner.
