

For the Juniors, selling doughnuts may be easy, but delivering them is another story.

Everyone on the sidelines are amazed by the outstanding touchdown.

A few of the seventh graders stop for a break from the field day activities.

One of our new courses, chorus, has definitely caught the eighth graders attention.

The fifth graders show their originality for Blue and White Day at the pep rally.