

On Friday October 30 the halls of J.C.C.A. were buzzing with Halloween excitement. The seniors came to school in their costumes. We had jail-birds, rag dolls, California raisins, Hagar the Horrible and the devil himself. Everyone enjoyed these slightly over-sized Trick or Treaters.

The P.T.O. sponsored its annual Halloween Carnival in the gym on October 31. Ghosts and goblins of all shapes and sizes came to take part in the fun and festivities.

It looks like Hardee's California Raisins have come to life.

No the Vikings haven't landed, it's only Tracy Ulmer and Bud Williams.

Could it be they? I heard that Amy Goehring and Caroline Linder and Becky Bennett escaped from prison.

As you can tell, Amy Goehring and Wendy Hiott never grew out of the baby doll stage.
