

The freshman class derives the name "busy bodies" because they never quit. Most of the students who participated in sports went to camps. Some went to football while others went to basketball and tennis. If they weren't playing sports they were fox hunting or singing "I Heard It Through The Grapevine" as the freshman class skit for the pep rally. It is fair to say that the freshman class can handle almost anything.

Michelle Woodard, Michelle Jones, and Charla Valentine take a few minutes out of their lunch break to smile for the camera.

These ninth graders spend a few minutes getting ready for Coach Lewis's class.

Tim Godwin is so overjoyed about having his picture taken?

Charla Valentine

I like being a freshman because I'm included in more activities.

Why do you like the ninth grade?
