

Unity: The Name Of The Game

While at camp at Columbia College, the Varsity Cheerleaders show perfect form.

Charla Valentine, Kristie Smith, and Shelly White practice their new moves in the hall.

SEASON SUMMARY

"I enjoyed cheerleading, it was a lot of fun." — Angella Bulter

Three words that come to mind to describe the Varsity Cheerleaders are spirit, pride, and group effort. Spirit was an element that was abundant in the 1989-90 Varsity Cheerleaders. They displayed it at every opportunity. Pride was felt by all, the cheerleaders and spectators at games when the War Hawk's won. The cheerleaders held together through thick and thin in a totally unified group effort. Special recognition goes to Mrs. Sandy Tyler who was the Varsity Cheerleaders advisor.
