

Why Football?

The happiness, spirit, and surprise of Homecoming and Victory.

The sadness of injury and defeat.

The Hope and Anxiety of the First Down.

The Youth awaiting the opportunity to move into graduate's positions as this young Patriot apparently is saying, "I don't care who you are, give me the ball."