

Next the Patriots were defeated by a powerful Denmark-Olar squad 6-30. The following week Ruffin and St. Matthews put on one of the finest displays of defense in football. The game ended with a tie 0-0. The Patriots then visited Bamberg for a hard hitting affair but the offense couldn't muster a score as the game ended 0-12. On the road for the third week the Patriots still couldn't score as St. George won 0-18.
