

The Patriots now had to face undefeated Barnwell away. To the surprise of a lot of spectators and the Barnwell team Ruffin proved that victory is not always as sweet as expected. Harold McFadden, tackle, grabbed a Barnwell pass and raced into the end zone for the Patriot score, the game ending 6-28. The Patriots, on the road again, played without the outstanding nose guard, Anthony Glover, and without much spirit allowed Ellore to defeat them 8-12. The end of the long season provided a good Wade Hampton team from Triple A ranks. Big Johnny Ulmer had his best night and all the Patriots played hard but were defeated 0-21. The Patriot offense being young, and playing without a single letterman in the backfield, sputtered along without looking sharp but did improve as the season ended.
