

How is this year unique? Bicentennial events permeate the atmosphere. Each Monday morning Charlene reads an article on what life was like in South Carolina 200 years ago. The chorus and band participate in A Bicentennial Salute to America, featuring Bob Hope, Minnie Pearl, and Anita Bryant.

Even the cafeteria joins in the activities by serving a Bicentennial lunch, complete with costumes. Students receive identification cards with picture and schedule.

New students transferred in all year, and some, like Tracy James and Gwen Simmons, even had a picture for the annual.
