

Left. Kunteza entertains the crowds with a new dance. Top. Mack runs when pies are being thrown. Bottom. Juniors go wild to the music of the band.

The junior class started the year with an exciting day of trying on and purchasing rings. The juniors raised money and made plans for the Junior-Senior Prom. Juniors experienced their first year at the Vocational Center studying stenography, mechanics, welding, and food service. Juniors were tapped by the Honor Society. Juniors participated in varsity football and basketball. Juniors participated in gymnastics and track. Juniors sang in the chorus and played in the Band.

JUNIORS