

Left: Eighth graders are ready and willing to participate at pep rallies. Top: Colene, Joann and Ethel move to the music of the RHS band. Bottom: Ricky does a dance as the crowd cheers.

Entering a new school is never easy. But with a little adjusting, the eighth-grade began to fit right in and enjoy high school life. Under the direction of Mrs. Spires, English became a new language and trying to break ahead of a senior in the lunchline became impossible.

8TH GRADE