

DRAMA CLUB

This is the drama club's second year in production. They presented a play called "Heaven knows I didn't want to go to Hell" that turned out to be pretty hot. The work that has to be put into action has been successfully done keep up the good work in coming years, and get out there and break a leg.

