

SEATED: Richard Breland, Cathy Lyons, Dwayne Jackson, Dennis Lingard, Valerie Stephens, Precious Lingard, Cinderella Williams, STANDING: Donna Proveaux, Abigail Aiken, Jamie Goff, Sharon Hudson, Genevia Risher, George Hudson, Neal Lingard, Chuck Spell. Not pictured is Mrs. M. Barton, Librarian.

The day in the life of a bus driver begins around 5:00 when he awakes. He takes 20 Tylenol and 20 Excedrin for the ever present headache.

The route starts at 6:00. The driver gets on the road while attempting to dodge mothers, fathers, and all other troubles. He stops at the first house and begins his long wait. (The average waiting period is 30 minutes per stop.)

At last with a bus full of insurgent meticulous rascals, he begins his dangerous journey to the penitentiary (school). After reaching this place of despair, he disembarks his meticulous cargo. He now begins to think, "I'm going to tell the bus officer to take this route and _____! I'm not maneuvering yon vehicle of irreputable transportation any more."

At the sounding of the gong (bell), a throng of rampant rascals swing aboard the bus. After running into the flagpole and finally clearing the prison yard, he realizes he left one of the little brats. The driver finally arrives home at 5:00 and falls over the trumpet case one of the terrors left on the step. So ends one of the easier days of a Colleton County metropolis driver of transportation.

The Bus Drivers are: Vic Bishop, Melinda Givens, Myron Wiggins, Anthony Chisholm, Maxine Haynes, Barbara Breland, Tony Johnson, Jacqueline Edwards, Ernie Shaw, Donny Fender, Chuck Spell, Rodney Henderson, Ronald Adams.