This year of 1957 points up to twenty years of democracy in action by the students of Southwest High School, for that is what the name Student Council means. Its purpose is to teach young people to work, to play, and to govern themselves in the democratic American way of co-operation and fair play. As set forth in Article I of its constitution, its prime purposes are:

“To aid in the internal administration of the school
 To foster sentiments of law, order, and co-operation
 To promote the general activities of the school
 To develop in the student a growing appreciation of membership in a democracy.”

This committee planned our wonderful fall “Hello Day.”
