

Girls Bowling

Row One: A. Bossung, C. Sennert, C. Jamieson, S. Langton, J. Eggeman, S. Jones, J. Northrup, J. Lieber, C. Hahn, D. Oehlert, S. Ambach, M. Prichard, C. Zulauf.
 Row Two: J. Karpinski, K. West, S. Reiss, S. Naylor, D. Fridley, D. Bryant, J. Shankland, J. Thatcher, P. DeRosa, C. Carter, J. Kinsey, B. Steber, J. McMurray, J. Mancuso.
 Row Three: S. Wetterau, B. Siegfried, B. Eaton, B. Hughes, C. Treichel, P. Freund, S. Evanek, P. Critchfield, S. Eschrich, N. Steinmann, N. Heyl, D. Smelser, C. Goldbeck, S. Holmes.
 Row Four: B. Baxter, S. Muschany, C. Spellmeyer, T. Todd, C. Hughes, S. Sebourn, S. Gross, E. Tietjens, J. Koenig, D. Darr, S. Owens, L. Wheat.
 Row Five: R. Johnson, J. Gruendler, N. Fricke, J. King, M. Schmidt, S. Marshall, Jane Sheets, Jean Sheets, C. Hradsky, L. Raymer, J. Maclean, S. Browne, S. Barnes.
 Row Six: E. Fitzpatrick, D. Timmons, J. Hoffman, J. Siefert, S. Bindbeutel, J. Ker, M. Glanz, G. Currall, A. David, B. Kimerle, S. Mathews, G. Schrand, Miss Ulbricht.

“Roll it down the alley,
 Knock down that pin,
 Come on team,
 We want to win.”

Since the birth of our Alma Mater in 1937, there have been many morale-boosters such as this cheer that have sounded from the doors of Arway Bowling Alley.

Although the first club, a tremendous success, outnumbered our present enrollment of one hundred seventy girls, bowling has always been a favorite sport at Southwest. This large number poses a problem. How can all participate? To solve this, Miss Ulbricht has divided the girls into sixteen teams that bowl in competition on Wednesday and Thursday of every week. These teams,

Wednesday Teams