The Pioneer

Pioneer hands work hard to meet the deadline.

Should you have wandered into 215 on Oct. 7, 1938, you would have met Editors Jean Freund and Edgar Zaharia, forty-seven staff members, and Miss Lucile Murphy grinning triumphantly over the grand and glorious appearance of the first issue of the Pioneer.

In the nineteen years that have since elapsed, hard working Pioneer staffs under some forty successive editors and the same sponsor, have won numerous top honors from such leading press associations as the Quill and Scroll and the National Scholastic Press Association. Latest among these was the coveted "Special Excellent Award" from the Missouri Scholastic Press Association, one of two such awards in the state during the last school year.

Like each previous staff, the present group, headed by Co-Editors Sharon Browne and Charmie Linhart, is working long and enthusiastically to maintain the Pioneer's reputation.
