Junior Red Cross Art

Red Cross Artists are well pleased with their output—some of their many favors.

The Fine Arts group has made an outstanding record throughout the passing years. Ever since joining the Junior Red Cross, the art students have given class time to this project. This year's accomplishment may well be taken as a fair sample of what they always have done in the past in order to brighten the lives of the disabled veterans on holidays. For Hallowe'en we note thirty-one favors, ten nut cups, twenty-five napkins, twenty-seven tray covers, two posters, and one extra large wall hanging. Christmas work included thirty-eight favors, fifty-six napkins, thirty-two tray covers, fourteen pictures, and six extra large hangings. At Easter
