

Row One: J. Barton, J. Forward, B. Schreiner, S. Noto, S. Hawthorne, N. Heyl, B. Anderson, K. Honer, J. Schrock, S. Williams, J. Moon.
 Row Two: J. Watson, S. Black, E. Brinkmann, R. Huebner, J. Miller, J. Wagner, S. Boone, J. Moore, M. Kuehn, N. Romscheck, B. Keller.
 Row Three: D. Rossi, P. Bauman, D. Sydow, G. Geile, N. Holmes, B. Dinsmore, T. Turk, C. Cantagi, S. Herweck, R. George, P. McNamara.
 Row Four: M. Boedeker, N. Ferrante, D. Seper, E. Wizeman, N. Nicoletti, B. Renner, M. Jones, C. Petersen, J. Vocker, V. Dillon, J. Schaefer, K. Duchek.
 Row Five: D. Potter, A. Winter, E. Schlottach, J. Morris, F. Karsznia, S. Langton, R. Shimamoto, J. Parks, R. Hoffmann.
 Row Six: T. Balvin, B. Pflueger, H. Genz, B. Dorsam, R. Goessling, J. Pisoni, J. Hunter.

Sponsors: Miss Boedeker Mrs. Markman

time thirty-nine favors, twelve nut cups, two hundred napkins, sixteen tray covers, and twenty-three posters went for this special day. Fourth of July was noted by sending fifty favors, six nut cups, fifty napkins, nine tray covers, and six posters.

The clouds of World War II have passed. No longer do we see a group of girls making comforts to be sent as "Bundles for Britain." Yes, nineteen years have sped by, but the Junior Red Cross of Southwest High School is still an organization to which we can point with great pride, for it has always done a fine job.

These Red Cross workers are putting the finishing touches on some modeling.