*Good Luck in the rest of high school.

If we could foretell the future, we would pick for you the future Student Council president from this picture. Perhaps that fellow in the third row will be the Roundup editor for 1961. That girl in the first row will sing the lead in the operetta. It's possible that we can see an editor of the Pioneer in the second row. The captain of the future football team is present, too, as well as several baseball and basketball stars. Yes, they're all here in these two pictures—Southwest's future big wheels. The trouble is we can't identify them at this time. However, with the help of their advisers: Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Hughes, Miss Kroenlein, Miss Kizer, and Mr. Free, we know that, whatever their high school ambitions may be, they can be fulfilled during the coming four years.
