

Student Council — Fall

The student council is a truly democratic organization. Each advisory elects one representative and one alternate, thus giving the mighty seniors and the minuscule ones equal representation. These representatives are the real leaders of the student population. They all have good scholastic records, and all possess the qualities of reliability and leadership.

At the head of the council are a president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, officers who are elected by all Southwesterners. The candidates for
