"B" Basketball

According to those who know sports, the purpose of the "B" or junior varsity team is not to win games, but to prepare young athletes for varsity action. In accordance with this theory, the 1956-57 "B" Cagers sent five players to the varsity squad. Mr. Close, the "B" coach, feels that another 5 boys will make good varsity material for next season. They are Herb Blase, Carl Harris, Steve Goldman, Fred Bunkop, and Charles Rehmert. Of those 5, Blase joined the varsity at the end of the season in time to score 11 points in a regional against Roosevelt. In league play, the junior basketballers compiled a 3 and 6 record, while in non-league play the totals were the same 3 and 6.

Coach Close expects a large turnout of freshmen and sophomore boys next fall. He comments: "There will be a big rebuilding job as most of the returning boys will only be with us for half the season."
