

Row One: L. Wiesehan, C. Ohsiek, M. Connley, S. Fletcher, K. Schuchardt, J. Matula, D. Williams, M. Milford, J. Baker.
 Row Two: D. Radford, D. Schoenbeck, D. Wors, J. Kinsey, C. Webster, S. Evanek, C. Sennert, M. Scarato, S. Jones, K. Gieck, S. Rupert, M. Harriss, B. Siegfried, J. Lowry, P. Marks.
 Row Three: S. Wetterau, V. Huether, J. Sorensen, D. Rossi, L. Jones, L. Clark, P. Matheny, S. Sisk, J. Bieser, M. Ferrara, J. Rascher, J. Thoeses, J. Wasylenko, J. Edwards, N. Gage, C. Grasel.
 Row Four: E. Sachan, M. Smith, C. Brandt, B. Biel, J. Caudle, S. Meier, P. Burnett, N. Klusmeyer, B. Hasta, J. Heddell, D. Sydow, K. Pinckert, M. Spieldoch.
 Row Five: L. Grasel, C. Fremon, C. Marks, S. Cleary, P. Doty, M. Hollis, S. Heyl, A. Badagliacco, B. Mincher, B. Livingston, S. Duffendack, V. Bindrup, M. Cleary, C. Hogan.

Pep Club

The ebullient, good natured girls who make up Southwest's Pep Club deserve a lot of credit. Under the expert leadership of their brand new sponsor, Miss Burgett, the girls learn the correct pitch, diction, and tone quality needed to carry our Southwest cheers across to our opponents.

These girls brave the worst of weather to get to the many different stadiums, where our teams play. On arriving at the games, these "peppy" girls go all out in their enthusiastic cheering. This past year their enthusiasm has helped it seems, for as we all know our Southwest Longhorns have won the 1957 City Wide Championship, our Southwest Cagers have come in second in the City Wide Competition, and our fabulous tennis team finished up their season in first place. Needless to say, the cheering coming from the Southwest spectators helped our