

Row One: P. Fash, J. Janson, K. Knoblauch, E. Hirsch, A. Makuh, D. Venezia, D. Voss, P. Owen, P. Schindler, B. House, S. Leonhardt, S. Myers, C. Smyrniotis, J. Oellermann, K. Harpe.

Row Two: K. Schuetz, T. Buck, C. Moses, J. Door, D. Gress, J. Hagan, D. Fleshman, B. Brewer, P. Firestine, S. Franke, E. Roeder.

Row Three: D. Siewing, V. Breyfogle, D. Beardslee, C. Pulley, D. Frigerio, F. Schlemmer, J. Metcalf, D. Ryffel, J. Richie, L. Settemoir, S. Letcher.

Row Four: J. Mash, R. McHenry, M. Campbell, C. Faour, A. Voepel, N. Buck, J. Stucki, B. Seep, M. Greaves, B. Heckel, S. Walgren, S. Brown, J. Beville.

Row Five: W. Beville, B. Nipper, M. Hardester, L. Ratteree, J. Hagedorn, R. Dansker, J. Bowles, B. Alfeld, M. Connors, J. Robinson, C. Espy, D. Hacker, M. Wolff, W. Smith.

Row Six: M. Broughton, R. Heath, K. LaPlant, V. Davies, B. Ent, J. Bendick, M. Bono, J. Kee, R. Valle, B. Sprecher, E. Jemas, J. Schmuke, R. Groeneman, J. Richter.

Row Seven: W. Louden, C. Hollman, E. Nesselhauf, B. Jacobson, J. Crooks, J. Gerhardt, A. Breidenbach, T. Eisel, C. Gianoulakis, R. Walker, C. Giamarino, D. Mester, J. Finks, P. Perniciaro.

Freshmen Ones

Dear Nujay,

On January, 1958, you, the class of January, 1962, entered the halls of our Alma Mater. Remember your frightful first day at Southwest? You probably felt like little lost children alone and a little out of place at fast-moving Southwest. You and others before you have gotten split programs, waited for the elevator service to take you to the fifth floor, and have been led astray by the mighty seniors.

If we could foretell the future, we would pick

