

Fundamentals Compose English Curriculum

Upper School English teachers concentrated on fundamentals. Vocabulary, grammar, and composition made up the backbone of the English department. However, book reports and term papers provided deviation from the everyday classroom activity. Film strips and records pertaining to literature also captivated the students.

The library provided a good place for students to study and do research. Miss Sadler, librarian, encouraged students to use the library.

MISS FRANCIS SADLER: Librarian; Pierian.

MRS. MILLIE HORTON: English IV, V; Public Speaking; Rebel; May Court; 8th.
