

Bicentennial Influences English & History

Emphasizing the Bicentennial, the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade English students learned more about the heritage of their country. A trip to the Calhoun County Museum broadened the knowledge of the students. Book reports also played a large part in the English courses.

In social studies, the students learned about different areas of the world. Maps, slides, and speakers provided valuable information.

MRS. MARY ADAMS: Language Arts; Social Studies; 4th.

MRS. NANCY LIVINGSTON: Language Arts; Social Studies, 4th.

MRS. LAUREL RAND: Language Arts; Social Studies; 5th.

MR. GEORGE WEEKS: Language Arts; Social Studies; 5th.

1. Completing an assignment, Bill Taylor checks his answer in his English book.
2. In Mrs. Livingston's geography class, Mr. Sizoo demonstrates Holland's arts.
3. Returning from the teacher's desk, Robin Gue chats with Sundai Phillips.

