

Eighth Graders Widen Their Horizons

Varied subjects helped broaden the eighth graders' world. In their study of Latin, they learned not only the fundamentals of the language, but also the lifestyle and customs of Romans. World geography pointed out the basic differences between countries and their lifestyles.

Eighth graders also took part in extracurricular activities. The Science Club, Student Council, and J.V. sports filled their spare time.

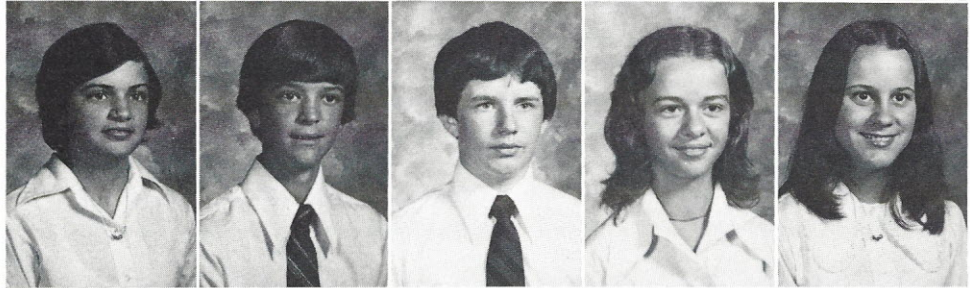

Karen Alexander
Greg Antley
Glennan Ashe
Donna Bair
Walter Betsill

Renee Bochette
Mandy Bowman
Richard Bozard
Dean Brickle
Cal Bruner

Karen Calder
Roddey Caughman
Dick Cease
Dede Collier
Barbara Ann Craven

Talley Culclasure
Anne Dahlgren
Theresa Davis
Rudy Dean
Robert Evans

Ralph Faulling
Debbie Fogle
Susan Fogle
Gregg Frierson-pres.
Teresa Graham

