

Outside Activities Occupy Time Of W. H. A. Students

Student life was not confined to school activities. Volunteer work broadened students' knowledge in specific fields. Clubs brought them together with others to have fun while helping the community. The church was a definite factor in many students' lives so they were involved in church youth groups. Movies were a source of refuge.

1

