

Graduating Seniors Attend Baccalaureate

On May 11, the 1975 WHA graduating class was honored by a Baccalaureate service held in the McAlister Auditorium. Rev. Kenneth Newton delivered the sermon.

Four days later 77 seniors received diplomas from Dr. Gressette during the graduation exercises. Gov. James Edwards addressed the seniors on the importance of responsibility. After prayers the marshals led the new graduates out.

1. Before the Processional, Mr. Edson adjusts the collar on Mrs. Pinner's robe.

2. Seniors Sharon Stone and Edith Ann Brandenburg check out the program.

3. Marshals, first row: Julie Strickland, Laurie Johnson, Mary Sowell, Terri Gillam; Larry Hunter, Keever Prickett, Deck Cheatham and Kay Culler.
