

Pierian, Rebel Yell, And Radio Programs Give Inside View Of Student Life At W.H.A.

The Pierian staff sponsored a literary week during which students submitted poetry and prose. The smaller size of the book improved its appearance.

The Rebel Yell reported on the latest school news. New features such as articles on teachers, the ideal student of each class, and a children's page boosted sales.

Writing their own programs, seniors reported weekly on radio-stations WDIX and WTND. These programs focused on school news and special interest items.
