

Pep Club Elevates Spirit With Skits And Signs

With enthusiasm and spirit the Pep Club contributed long hours of hard work cheering the teams to victory. Clever skits were performed at pep rallies. To promote spirit around the school, members painted signs weekly and displayed them in the halls.

The sale of "great, gray derbies," ribbons, and raffle tickets kept the club busy throughout the year. The income from these sales, as well as the "White Elephant" booth at the carnival, enabled the club to present a gift to W.H.A.

1. During a Pep Club skit, Cindy Martin portrays the "Mighty Rebel Midget."

2. First row: Cathy Booth, Renee Bair, Franke Cope, Dede Collier, Judy Richardson, Renee Bochette, Anna Hughes, Wanda Evans, Debbie Haigler, Terry Bozard, Lynn Shuler, Reggie Huber, J.V. pres.; Laura Dobbins, varsity pres.; Cindy Martin, Cindy Murphy, Jane Richardson, Deborah Carlisle, Karen Fogle, Ann Goodwin, Sheri Meyers.

3. Varsity president, Laura Dobbins prepares a sign to be hung in the hall for the Hammond game.

4. Working diligently, Pep Club members paint signs for the upcoming game.

5. At the Homecoming assembly, Karen Fogle, Cindy Murphy, and Laura Dobbins sing "The Night the Warhawks Died."

