

Booster Club Works Hard During 75-76 Year

The Booster Club launched into another year of hard work. They worked tirelessly to sell tickets and refreshments at basketball and football games. Two athletic banquets were given by the Booster Club to award outstanding players. During Fair Week a booth took many hours of the members' time. With money earned throughout the year, they bought uniforms for the various athletic teams.

1. As Mr. Spradling tells of future projects, an observant parent listens.

2. At the Powder Puff game, Susan Fogle, clutching the ball, dashes down the field pursued by 7th graders.

3. Constructive Booster Club members Mrs. Prickett and Mrs. Rheney solicit club memberships in the gym lobby.

4. Head football coach at Newberry, Mr. Herrin speaks at the athletic banquet.

5. For the athletic banquet, Booster Club members cook steaks.
