

Tasks Require Self-Discipline

Looking forward to the semester break kept students motivated through the early part of winter. Preparing for Christmas, studying for exams, and attending basketball practice occupied the students through these hectic months.

Self-discipline and the budgeting of time were required to complete all of the necessary tasks. The natural gas shortage and an unusually cold winter added suspense and made students look forward eagerly to spring.

1.

2.

1. At the end of the play, happy seniors congratulate each other.

2. Listening intently, Rebels try to remember all of their pre-game directions.