

Administrators Direct School Affairs

Working hard, the headmaster and his assistants undertook the task of directing school affairs. Mr. Burns made a difficult job easier by maintaining a good relationship with the students. Serving as guidance counselor and Upper School head teacher, Mrs. Shuler helped students choose courses. The secretaries were valuable members of the administrative staff. Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Campbell rounded out the staff and performed needed services.

1. Pausing for a moment, Mrs. Kneece converses with Coach Allen.

MRS. KATHERINE CAMPBELL: Staff Assistant; Radio Programs.

MRS. LILLIAN EDWARDS: Bookkeeper.

MRS. SANDRA MACK: Secretary.

MRS. BARBARA KNEECE: Secretary.