

Experiences

Laughter and the warmth of smiling faces characterized the special festivities held during the year. Students offered their skills and worked unselfishly in the construction and creation of such projects as the Homecoming float, play scenery, and decorations for Jr.-Sr. Exchanging ideas and sharing experiences bound students together and helped them establish everlasting friendships. Throughout the race of life students can reflect on the memories of shared events that shaped their lives.

